RAY BROWN

— Authenticity is differentiation.

Ray Brown spent 15+ years as a top enterprise sales leader — repeat President's Club, millions closed, teams built from zero — before founding Revfinery. Now she takes the stage to talk about the thing that actually moved the needle: showing up fully as herself. Bold, funny, and unfiltered, Ray turns authenticity, loss, and resilience into a competitive edge audiences can put to work Monday morning.
